Revised PCRF-L (Revised 4/1/2019)

The United States Congress created the SBIR and STTR programs to strengthen the role of innovative small business concerns in Federally-funded research and development.

Twelve federal agencies participate in the funding of SBIR and STTR awards at this time. UM has participated in many of these opportunities and anticipates we will continue to be part of these initiatives.

To aid in the tracking of our SBIR and STTR involvement, as of April 1, 2019, the UM Proposal Contract Routing Form (PCRF-L) has been updated to include an additional question of “Is this project an SBIR or STTR?” Please select “Not Applicable, SBIR or STTR” as appropriate.

To ensure you obtain the most recent version of the PCRF-L, visit the Office of Research Administration website and download the form.
